

HILL STREET BEVERAGE COMPANY INC.
(formerly Avanco Capital Corp.)

CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

FOR THE YEARS ENDED JUNE 30, 2020 AND 2019

(Expressed in Canadian dollars)

To the Shareholders of Hill Street Beverage Company Inc. (formerly Avanco Capital Corp.):

Opinion

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of Hill Street Beverage Company Inc. (formerly Avanco Capital Corp.) and its subsidiaries (the "Company"), which comprise the consolidated statements of financial position as at June 30, 2020 and June 30, 2019, and the consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive loss, changes in equity and cash flows for the years then ended, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of the Company as at June 30, 2020 and June 30, 2019, and its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audits of the consolidated financial statements in Canada, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Material Uncertainty Related to Going Concern

We draw attention to Note 1 in the consolidated financial statements, which indicates that the Company incurred a net loss of $3,681,679 during the year ended June 30, 2020, and as at that date, had an accumulated deficit of $16,559,405. As stated in Note 1, these events or conditions, along with other matters as set forth in Note 1, indicate that a material uncertainty exists that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. Our opinion is not modified in respect of this matter.

Other Information

Management is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises Management's Discussion and Analysis. Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audits of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audits or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. We obtained Management's Discussion and Analysis prior to the date of this auditor's report. If, based on the work we have performed on this other information, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audits and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audits.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in this independent auditor's report is Brock Stroud.

1. NATURE OF OPERATIONS AND GOING CONCERN

Hill Street Beverage Company Inc., formerly Avanco Capital Corp. (the “Company”) was incorporated on April 6, 2016 in British Columbia under the Business Corporations Act (British Columbia) and was continued to Ontario under the Business Corporations Act (Ontario) on November 30, 2018. The Company commenced trading on the TSX Venture Exchange (the “TSX V”) under the symbol “AAA.P” on March 24, 2017. The Company is engaged in supplying alcohol free drinks. The Company sells its products online, in retail stores and to distributors in Canada.

The Company changed its name from Avanco Capital Corp. to Hill Street Beverage Company Inc. on July 24, 2018 in conjunction with a reverse takeover transaction (the “RTO”) (Note 5). The Company resumed trading on the TSX V at the opening of the market on July 24, 2018 under the new symbol “BEER”.

The Company’s registered address and the records are held at 480 University Ave. Suite 1401, Toronto, Ontario, M5G 1V2.

Effective July 24, 2018, the Company completed a consolidation of its common shares (“share consolidation”) on the basis of 65.358 post-consolidation shares for every pre-consolidation common share previously held. All references to share, per share amounts and exercise prices have been retroactively restated to reflect the effect of the share consolidation.

These consolidated financial statements are prepared on a going concern basis, which assumes that the Company will be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business for the foreseeable future and that management does not intend to liquidate the entity, or has no realistic alternative but to do so. As at June 30, 2019, the Company had not yet achieved profitable operations, had a net loss of $3,681,679 (June 30, 2019: $5,943,852), accumulated deficit of $16,559,405 (June 30, 2019: $12,877,726), and expects to incur further losses in the foreseeable future, all of which indicate the existence of a material uncertainty that may cast significant doubt upon the Company’s ability to continue as a going concern. Realization values may be substantially different from carrying values as shown and these consolidated financial statements do not give effect to adjustments that would be necessary to the carrying values and classification of assets and liabilities should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern. Such adjustments could be material.

The Company’s ability to continue its operations and to realize assets at their carrying values is dependent upon its ability to obtain necessary financing and generate operational profit to meet its ongoing levels of corporate overhead and discharge its liabilities as they come due. The success of the Company’s endeavors cannot be predicted at this time. There is no assurance that it will be able to obtain adequate financing in the future or that such financing will be on terms advantageous to the Company.

1. NATURE OF OPERATIONS AND GOING CONCERN (continued)

During the year, there was a global outbreak of COVID-19 (coronavirus), which has had an impact on businesses through the restrictions put in place by the Canadian, provincial and municipal governments regarding travel, business operations and isolation/quarantine orders. The Company's operations were impacted by COVID-19 due to a slower growth in year over year sales than anticipated. At this time, it is unknown the extent of the impact the COVID-19 outbreak may have on the Company as this will depend on future developments that are highly uncertain and that cannot be predicted with confidence. These uncertainties arise from the inability to predict the ultimate geographic spread of the disease, and the duration of the outbreak, including the duration of travel restrictions, business closures or disruptions, and quarantine/isolation measures that are currently, or may be put, in place by Canada and other countries to fight the virus. While the extent of the impact is unknown, we anticipate this outbreak may cause reduced customer demand, supply chain disruptions, staff shortages, and increased government regulations, all of which may negatively impact the Company's business and financial condition.

2. BASIS OF PREPARATION

Statement of compliance

These consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board ("IASB") and interpretations issued by the International Financial Reporting Interpretations Committee ("IFRIC").

These consolidated financial statements for the years ended June 30, 2020 and June 30, 2019 were authorized for issuance by the Board of Directors on October 28, 2020.

Basis of Presentation

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared on a historical cost basis except for certain financial assets that are measured at fair value. All dollar amounts presented are in Canadian dollars unless otherwise specified.

Consolidation

These consolidated financial statements incorporate the financial statements of the Company and its wholly owned subsidiaries, Hill Street Marketing Inc. and Hill Avenue Cannabis Inc., companies incorporated in Ontario. Control exists when the Company has the power, directly or indirectly, to govern the financial and operating policies of an entity so as to obtain benefits from its activities. Subsidiaries are included in the consolidated financial statements from the date control is obtained until the date control ceases. All significant intercompany transactions and balances have been eliminated.

Use of Estimates and Judgments

The preparation of these consolidated financial statements requires management to make certain estimates, judgments and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported expenses during the year. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

In particular, information about significant areas of estimation uncertainty and judgment considered by management in preparing the financial statements includes:

Critical Accounting Estimates

- The determination of income tax is inherently complex and requires making certain estimates and assumptions about future events. While income tax filings are subject to audits and reassessments, the Company has adequately provided for all income tax obligations. However, changes in facts and circumstances as a result of income tax audits, reassessments, jurisprudence and any new legislation may result in an increase or decrease in our provision for income taxes.
- Calculation of the net book value of machinery and equipment requires management to make estimates of the useful economic life of the assets, residual value at the end of the asset's useful economic life, method of depreciation and whether impairment in value has occurred. Residual values of the assets, estimated useful lives and depreciation methodologies are reviewed annually with prospective application of any changes, if deemed appropriate. Changes to estimates could be caused by a variety of factors, including changes to the useful life of the assets. A change in any of the estimates would result in a change in the amount of depreciation and, as a result, a charge to net income recorded in the period in which the change occurs, with a similar change in the carrying value of the asset on the balance sheet.
- The amortization of the Company's intangible assets involves estimates of their useful lives. Such estimates may change as more experience is obtained or as general market conditions change, thereby impacting the value of the Company's intangible assets.
- When valuing options, management uses judgment to determine the inputs to the Black-Scholes option pricing model including the expected plan lives, underlying share price volatility and forfeiture rates. Volatility is estimated by considering peer companies historic share price volatility over similar periods to the expected life of the awards under consideration. Changes in these assumptions will impact the calculation of fair value and the amount of compensation expense recognized in the consolidated statements of loss and comprehensive loss.
- When valuing warrants, similar to other stock-based compensation, management uses judgment to determine the inputs to the Black-Scholes option pricing model including the expected life, and underlying share price volatility. Volatility is estimated by considering peer companies historic share price volatility over similar periods to the expected life of the warrants. Changes in these assumptions will impact the calculation of fair value and the value attributed to the warrants.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

(Expressed in Canadian Dollars)

- When the Company enters into leases as a lessee and where the interest rate implicit in a lease cannot be readily determined, the Company determines its incremental borrowing rate in order to measure its lease liability. The incremental borrowing rate is the rate of interest that a lessee would have to pay to borrow over a similar term, and with similar security, the funds necessary to obtain an asset of a similar value to the right-of-use asset in a similar economic environment. In estimating its incremental borrowing rate, the Company considers the term of the lease, the nature of the leased asset, and its level of indebtedness with reference to market risk-free interest rates.
- When determining the discount rate used to estimate the fair value of the debt component of the convertible debenture and the fair value of the CEBA loan, the Company considers market conditions and other internal and external factors. The Company estimates its credit rating and benchmarks the discount rate to certain fixed income indices.
- In some contracts, the Company transfers control of a product to distributors and grants the distributors the right to return the product for a full or partial refund in the scenario that products are to expire in the hands of the distributor. To account for the transfer of products with a right of return, the Company recognises revenue for the transferred products in the amount of consideration to which the Company expects to be entitled to (therefore, revenue would not be recognised for the products expected to be returned). The expected consideration to be received is determined based on a combination of historical, current and forecasted information available to the entity at the end of each reporting period.

Judgments

- The Company performs impairment testing at the end of each reporting period for accounts receivable in accordance with IFRS 9. The ECL model requires considerable judgment, including consideration of how changes in economic factors affect ECLs, which are determined on a probability-weighted basis. IFRS 9 outlines a three-stage approach to recognizing ECLs which is intended to reflect the increase in credit risks of a financial instrument based on 1) 12-month expected credit losses or 2) lifetime expected credit losses. The Company measures provision for ECLs at an amount equal to lifetime ECLs. The Company applies the simplified approach to determine ECLs on trade receivables by using a provision matrix based on historical credit loss experiences. The historical results were used to calculate the run rates of default which were then applied over the expected life of the trade receivables, adjusted for forward looking estimate.

- Impairment indicators include a significant decline in an asset's market value, significant changes in the technologies, market, economic or legal environment in which the assets are operated, evidence of obsolescence or physical damage of an asset, significant changes in the planned use of an asset, or ongoing under-performance of an asset. Application of these factors to the facts and circumstances of a particular asset requires a significant amount of judgment.
- The Company regularly reviews inventory quantities on hand and records a provision for those inventories no longer deemed to be fully recoverable. The cost of inventories may no longer be recoverable if those inventories are slow moving, damaged, if they have become obsolete, or if their selling prices or estimated forecast of product demand decline. If actual market conditions are less favorable than previously projected, or if liquidation of the inventory no longer deemed to be fully recoverable is more difficult than anticipated, additional provisions may be required.
- The assessment of the Company's ability to continue as a going concern involves judgement regarding future funding available for its operations and working capital requirements as discussed in Note 1.
- When the Company enters into leases as a lessee, it determines the lease term as the non-cancellable period of the lease together with periods covered by an option to extend the lease if it reasonably expects to exercise such option. In assessing whether it is reasonably certain to exercise an option to extend a lease, the Company considers: the contractual terms and conditions for the optional periods compared with market rates; whether any significant leasehold improvements have been undertaken; the costs of terminating the lease; the importance of the underlying asset to the Company's operations; and any conditionality associated with exercising the option.
- The recoverable amount is the higher of fair value less costs to sell and value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset for which the estimates of future cash flows have not been adjusted. If the recoverable amount of an asset (or cash-generating unit) is estimated to be less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of the asset (or cash-generating unit) is reduced to its recoverable amount. An impairment loss, or any reversal of a previously recognized impairment loss, is recognized immediately in profit or loss.

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Foreign currency translation

The Canadian dollar is considered to be the functional currency of the Company and its subsidiaries.

Transactions denominated in currencies other than the Canadian dollar are translated using the exchange rate in effect on the transaction date or at an average rate. At the end of each reporting period, monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the rate of exchange in effect at the statement of financial position date. Non-monetary items are translated at historical rates. Exchange gains or losses on translation are recorded in the statements of operations and comprehensive loss.

Revenue recognition

IFRS 15 outlines a single comprehensive model to account for revenue arising from contracts with customers. The core principle of the standard is to recognize revenue to depict the transfer of control of goods and services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods and services. The standard has prescribed a five-step model to apply the principles. The standard also specifies how to account for the incremental costs of obtaining a contract and the costs directly related to fulfilling a contract as well as requiring more informative and relevant disclosures.

Under IFRS 15, revenue is recognized to depict the transfer of goods in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled following five steps:

- (i) Identify the contract with a customer
- (ii) Identify the performance obligations in the contract
- (iii) Determine the transaction price
- (iv) Allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract
- (v) Recognize revenue when (or as) the entity satisfies a performance obligation.

Revenue from the sale of products is recognized when the product is shipped and received by the customer, and depending on the delivery conditions, title and risk have passed to the customer. For transactions with retail stores and distributors, the Company's terms are primarily "FOB destination point", which designates that the Company will pay shipping costs and remain responsible for the goods until the buyer takes possession. Sales to consumers through the Company's online store are recorded when the product is received by the consumer. Product returns, promotional allowances, chargebacks, money program and discounts provided to consumers are deducted from gross revenue to arrive at net revenue.

In some contracts, the Company transfers control of a product to distributors and grants the distributors the right to return the product for a full or partial refund in the scenario that products are to expire in the hands of the distributor. To account for the transfer of products with a right of return, the Company recognises revenue for the transferred products in the amount of consideration to which the Company expects to be entitled to (therefore, revenue would not be recognised for the products expected to be returned). The expected consideration to be received is determined based on a combination of historical, current and forecasted information available to the entity at the end of each reporting period.

Cost of goods sold

Cost of goods sold include the cost of finished goods inventory sold during the year and freight charges.

Inventory

Inventory is comprised of finished goods. Inventory is valued at the lower of cost and net realizable value. Cost is determined on an average cost basis. Net realizable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less any applicable selling expenses. The Company utilizes a weighted average cost calculation to determine the value of ending inventory. Average cost is determined separately for domestic and export non-alcohol drinks. Cost includes purchases and costs incurred in bringing inventory to the present location.

Operating segments

The Company operates in one industry segment, the sale of non-alcoholic drinks products. Most of the Company's sales are within Canada, with a small volume sold in the United States.

Intangible assets

Finite life intangible assets are recorded at cost less accumulated amortization and accumulated impairment losses. Following initial recognition, such intangible assets are carried at cost less any accumulated amortization on a straight-line basis over five years. The estimated useful life and amortization method are reviewed at the end of each reporting period, and the effects of any changes are reported on a prospective basis.

Property and equipment

Machinery and equipment are recorded at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses. Rates and basis of depreciation applied to write off the cost of property and equipment to their residual values over their estimated useful lives are as follows:

Computer hardware	Declining-Balance	33.33%
Computer software	Declining-Balance	33.33%
Equipment	Declining-Balance	20%

The Company records one-half of the calculated depreciation in the year of acquisition.

Impairment of machinery and equipment and intangible assets

At the end of each reporting period, the Company reviews the carrying amounts of its tangible and intangible assets to determine whether there is any indication that those assets have suffered an impairment loss. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is estimated in order to determine the extent of the impairment loss (if any). When it is not possible to estimate the recoverable amount of an individual asset, the Company estimates the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs.

When a reasonable and consistent basis of allocation can be identified, corporate assets are also allocated to individual cash-generating units, or otherwise they are allocated to the smallest group of cash generating units for which a reasonable and consistent allocation basis can be identified.

Intangible assets with definite useful lives and intangible assets not yet available for use are tested for impairment at least annually, and whenever there is an indication that the asset may be impaired.

The recoverable amount is the higher of fair value less costs to sell and value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset for which the estimates of future cash flows have not been adjusted. If the recoverable amount of an asset (or cash-generating unit) is estimated to be less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of the asset (or cash-generating unit) is reduced to its recoverable amount. An impairment loss, or any reversal of a previously recognized impairment loss, is recognized immediately in profit or loss.

Income taxes

Income tax on the profit or loss for the periods presented comprises current and deferred tax. Income tax is recognized in profit or loss except to the extent that it relates to items recognized directly in equity, in which case it is recognized in equity. Current tax expense is the expected tax payable on the taxable income for the year, using tax rates enacted or substantively enacted at period end, adjusted for amendments to tax payable with regards to previous years.

Deferred tax is recorded using the statement of financial position liability method, providing for temporary differences, between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amounts used for taxation purposes. The following temporary differences are not provided for: goodwill not deductible for tax purposes; the initial recognition of assets or liabilities that affect neither accounting nor taxable loss; and differences relating to investments in subsidiaries to the extent that they will probably not reverse in the foreseeable future. The amount of deferred tax provided is based on the expected manner of realization or settlement of the carrying amount of assets and liabilities, using tax rates enacted or substantively enacted at the statement of financial position date.

A deferred tax asset is recognized only to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which the asset can be utilized.

Loss per share

The Company presents basic and diluted loss per share data for its common shares, calculated by dividing the loss attributable to common shareholders of the Company by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the period. Diluted loss per share does not adjust the loss attributable to common shareholders or the weighted average number of common shares outstanding when the effect is anti-dilutive.

Provisions

Provisions are recorded when a present legal or constructive obligation exists as a result of past events where it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation, and a reliable estimate of the amount can be made. If the effect is material, provisions are determined by discounting the expected future cash flows at a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and, where appropriate, the risks specific to the liability.

Government grants

The Company recognizes government grants when it is reasonably assured that it will comply with the conditions attached to them and the grants will be received. Government grants include wage subsidies under the Canada Emergency Wage Subsidy (“CEWS”) program and the benefit of the below-market interest rate from the Canada Emergency Business Account (“CEBA”) loan. Wage subsidies are included in wages and salaries in the consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive loss. The benefit of the below-market interest rate from the CEBA loan is included in gain on favourable interest rate in the consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive loss. The benefit was initially deferred and was recognized as income as the proceeds of the loan were used to fund operating expenses.

The CEBA loan was initially measured at fair value based on the present value of future cash flows, discounted using a market rate of interest for similar loans. The loan is subsequently measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method. Interest expense related to the CEBA loan is included in accretion expense in the consolidated statements of loss and comprehensive loss.

Convertible debentures

Convertible debentures issued by the Company are comprised of convertible debentures and warrants that can be converted to share capital at the option of the holder. The liability component of the convertible debentures is recognized initially at its fair value, which is equal to the present value of future cash flows, discounted using a market rate of interest for similar non-convertible debt. The equity component, which includes the conversion feature of the debentures and the attached warrants, is initially recognized as the difference between the fair value of the convertible debentures as a whole and the fair value of the liability component. The value of the equity component is allocated between the conversion feature and the warrants based on their relative fair values. Any directly attributable transaction costs are allocated to the liability and equity components in proportion to their initial carrying amounts.

Subsequent to initial recognition, the liability component of the convertible debentures is measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method. The equity component of the convertible debentures is not remeasured subsequent to initial recognition. Interest expense, losses and gains relating to the financial liability are recognized in the consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive loss.

Share capital

The Company records proceeds from share issuances net of issue costs and any tax effects in shareholders' equity. Common shares issued for consideration other than cash are valued based on their market value at the date the shares were granted. The proceeds from the issuance of units are allocated between common shares and warrants based on the proportionate fair value of both the common share and warrant on the date of issuance. Consideration received for the exercise of warrants is recorded in share capital, and any related amount recorded in warrants reserve is transferred to share capital.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents in the statement of financial position comprise cash at banks and on hand.

Stock-based payments

The Company grants stock options to buy common shares of the Company to directors, officers, employees and service providers. The board of directors grants such options for periods of up to five years, with vesting periods determined at its sole discretion and at prices equal to or greater than the closing market price on the day preceding the date the options were granted.

The fair value of the options granted to employees is measured at grant date, using the Black-Scholes option pricing model, and is recognized as the employees earn the options. The fair value is recognized as an expense with a corresponding increase in equity. The amount recognized as expense is adjusted to reflect the number of share options expected to vest.

The fair value of the options granted to non-employees are measured at the fair value of the goods or services received, unless that fair value cannot be estimated reliably, in which case the fair value of the equity instruments issued is used. The value of the goods or services is recorded at the earlier of the vesting date, or the date the goods or services are received.

When the stock options are exercised, the applicable amounts of equity reserves are transferred to share capital.

4. NEW STANDARDS ADOPTED

The following new standards, and amendments to standards and interpretations, are effective for the current year and have been applied in preparing these consolidated financial statements.

- i) IFRS 16 Leases – In January 2016, the IASB issued IFRS 16 Leases, effective for annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2019, with earlier adoption permitted. IFRS 16 supersedes IAS 17 Leases, IFRIC 4 Determining whether an Arrangement contains a Lease, SIC-15 Operating Leases – Incentives and SIC-27 Evaluating the Substance of Transactions in the Legal Form of a Lease. The Company adopted IFRS 16 effective July 1, 2019.

IFRS 16 removes the distinction between operating and finance leases from the lessee's perspective and introduces a single lessee accounting model. The standard requires a lessee to recognize a right-of-use asset and a corresponding lease liability for substantially all leases, except for leases with lease terms of less than 12 months and leases of low value assets. IFRS 16 also results in reclassification of the nature of lease expenses to depreciation and interest expense, from their classification of "premises expense" under IAS 17.

The Company adopted IFRS 16 using the modified retrospective approach. Therefore, the cumulative effect of adopting IFRS 16, was recognized as an adjustment to opening retained earnings as at July 1, 2019, with no restatement of comparative information.

The Company has elected to apply the practical expedient to grandfather the assessment of which transactions are leases and to apply IFRS 16 only to contracts that were previously identified as leases under IAS 17 Leases and IFRIC 4 Determining whether an Arrangement contains a Lease. Contracts that were not identified as leases under these standards have not been reassessed for whether a lease exists. Accordingly, there was no impact to opening retained earnings as a result of the adoption of IFRS 16 as the Company was not party to any leases as of July 1, 2019.

Lease liabilities are measured at the present value of the contractual payments due to the lessor over the lease term, discounted using the Company's incremental borrowing rate. Variable lease payments are only included in the measurement of the lease liability if they depend on an index or rate. In such cases, the initial measurement of the lease liability assumes the variable element will remain unchanged throughout the lease term. Other variable lease payments are expensed in the period to which they relate.

The Company currently has a real estate lease in Mississauga, ON, which commenced on February 25, 2020 and extends to February 28, 2023. The non-cancellable period of this lease is three years. As required by IFRS 16, the Company has recognized a right-of-use asset and a lease liability in respect of this new lease (see Notes 9 and 11).

4. NEW STANDARDS ADOPTED (continued)

- ii) IFRIC 23 *Uncertainty over income tax treatments – In June 2017, the IASB issued IFRIC 23, which clarifies application of the recognition and measurement requirements in IAS 12 Income Taxes. IFRIC 23 explains how to recognize and measure deferred and current income tax assets and liabilities where there is uncertainty over a tax treatment. An uncertain tax treatment is any tax treatment applied by an entity where there is uncertainty over whether that treatment will be accepted by a tax authority. IFRIC 23 applies to all aspects of income tax accounting where there is an uncertainty regarding the treatment of an item, including taxable profit or loss, the tax bases of assets and liabilities, tax losses and credits and tax rates. IFRIC 23 is effective for annual reporting periods beginning on or after January 1, 2019. The Company adopted IFRIC 23 effective July 1, 2019 and has concluded that IFRIC 23 has no material impact on its consolidated financial statements.

5. REVERSE TAKEOVER TRANSACTION

On July 24, 2018, the Company completed the RTO with Hill Street Marketing Inc. pursuant to which the Company acquired all the outstanding securities of Hill Street Marketing Inc. As part of the transaction, the Company changed its name to Hill Street Beverage Company Inc.

The terms of transaction were as follows:

- An exchange of common shares of the Company and Hill Street Marketing Inc. at a ratio of 65.358 shares of the Company share for every one share of Hill Street Marketing Inc.
- Share purchase warrants and stock options of the Company were issued to/exchanged with holders of Hill Street Marketing Inc. convertible securities.

The acquisition of Hill Street Marketing Inc. was accounted for as a reverse takeover transaction that was not a business combination and effectively a capital transaction of the Company. Hill Street Marketing Inc. has been treated as the accounting parent (legal subsidiary) and the Company has been treated as the accounting subsidiary (legal parent) in these consolidated financial statements. As Hill Street Marketing Inc. was deemed to be the acquirer for accounting purposes, its assets, liabilities and operations since incorporation are included in these consolidated financial statements at their historical carrying values. Hill Street Beverage Company Inc. results of operations have been included from the date of the RTO. The legal capital continues to be that of Hill Street Beverage Company Inc, the legal parent. These consolidated financial statements are a continuation of those of Hill Street Marketing Inc. which was incorporated on December 3, 2008.

11. LEASES

The Company has a lease for industrial commercial space. The Company's lease commenced on February 25, 2020 and extends to February 28, 2023. The Company has an option to extend the lease beyond the three-year non-cancellable term for an additional term of three years. The Company has recognized a right-of-use asset in respect of this lease, which is included in property and equipment on the consolidated statements of financial position (note 9).

The Company has also recognized a lease liability for this lease, which was initially measured at the present value of the future lease payments, discounted using the Company's incremental borrowing rate of 6%. Interest expense on the lease liability is included in Bank charges and Interest in the consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive loss. The carrying amount of the Company's lease liability is summarized in the table below.

On May 1, 2020, the Company received a loan of $40,000 pursuant to the Canada Emergency Business Account (“CEBA”). The CEBA provides zero-interest, partially forgivable loans of up to $40,000 to small businesses that have experienced diminished revenues due to COVID-19 but face ongoing non-deferrable costs, such as rent, utilities, insurance, taxes and employment costs. If the balance of the loan is repaid on or before December 31, 2022, 25% of the loan will be forgiven. The loan bears no interest until December 31, 2022, at which point if unpaid, it will convert to a three-year term loan bearing interest at 5% per annum. The loan was initially measured at its fair value of $22,061 and is subsequently measured at amortized cost, using an effective interest rate of 23%. During the year ended June 30, 2020, $824 of interest expense related to the CEBA loan was recognized and included in accretion expense in the consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive loss.

The Company received a benefit of $17,939 due to the below-market interest rate on the CEBA loan. This benefit was initially recognized as a deferred gain and was recognized as income as the Company used the proceeds from the loan to fund its operational expenditures.

The outstanding principal and any accrued and unpaid interest may, at the option of the holder, be converted at any time prior to maturity into common shares in the capital of the Company at a conversion price of $0.05 per share for the first year of the term and $0.10 thereafter. The principal subscribers in the financing were the Company's CEO and HoldCo St. Catharines Ltd., the Company's largest shareholder.

The loan was initially measured at its fair value of $741,740, calculated by discounting the future cash flows using a market interest rate of 25%. The loan is subsequently measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method, at an effective interest rate of 23%. During the year ended June 30, 2020, the Company recognized $10,085 in interest expense and $18,660 in non-cash accretion expense, which are included in the consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive loss (June 30, 2019: $nil).

At issuance, the equity component of the convertible debenture was measured at $272,260. The equity component was allocated between the conversion feature and warrants based on their relative fair values, measured using the Black-Scholes option pricing model. A value of $136,130 was assigned to both the conversion feature and the warrants, both of which are included in reserves on the consolidated statements of financial position. Significant assumptions used to value the conversion feature and attached warrants are presented in the following table.

14. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Company considers its executive officers and directors to be key management personnel. The Company incurred the following amounts to related parties during the respective periods for key management personnel compensation:

During year ended June 30,	$	$
	2020	2019
Total salaries, benefits and management fees	856,646	749,892
Stock-based compensation	283,735	808,264
Total salaries and other short-term benefits	1,140,381	1,558,156

Included in accounts payable as at June 30, 2020 is $337,682 (June 30, 2019: $86,438) payable to Directors and Officers of the Company for management wages. The amount is non-interest bearing and unsecured.

On December 23, 2019, management and board members participated in a non-brokered private placement financing of units (“Units”) for gross proceeds of $250,000 at a price of $0.06 per Unit. Each Unit consists of one common shares and one warrant, with each warrant entitling the holder thereof to purchase one common share in the capital of the Company at a price of $0.13 per share for a period of two years from closing, subject to acceleration.

As at June 30, 2020, the company had $770,485 of related party convertible debt related to a private placement financing on May 4, 2020 for gross proceeds of $1,022,500 at a price of $1.00 per Unit. Each Unit is comprised of $1.00 principal amount of secured convertible debentures and 20 common share purchase.

15. CANADA EMERGENCY WAGE SUBSIDY

The Company applied for and received the Canada Emergency Wage Subsidy (“CEWS”), which provides up to 75% of an employee’s wages, up to a maximum of $847 per week. The initial program was in place for a 12-week period, from March 15 to June 6, 2020 and included three distinct claiming periods. The Company received $25,548 each for the first and second reporting periods.

As at June 30, 2020, the company continues to monitor the program and apply for subsidies as applicable.

16. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The following table summarizes the classification and measurement for each financial instrument:

Financial instrument	Category	Measurement
Cash and cash equivalents	Fair value through profit or loss ("FVTPL")	Fair value through profit or loss ("FVTPL")
Accounts receivable	Loans and receivables	Amortized cost
Other receivable	Loans and receivables	Amortized cost
Accounts payable and accrued liabilities	Other liabilities	Amortized cost
CEBA Loan	Other liabilities	Amortized cost
Convertible debenture	Other liabilities	Amortized cost

Financial instruments are initially recognized at fair value on the consolidated statements of financial position. Subsequent measurement of financial instruments is based on their classification. Financial assets and liabilities classified at FVTPL are measured at fair value with changes in those fair values recognized in the consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive loss. Financial assets and liabilities classified at amortized cost are measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method.

Financial assets

The Company classifies its financial assets into the following categories, depending on the purpose for which the asset was acquired. Management determines the classification of its financial assets at initial recognition. Financial assets are derecognized when the contractual rights to cash flows from the financial asset receipt or when the contractual rights to those assets are transferred.

Amortized cost

Financial assets measured at amortized cost are financial assets held within a business model whose objective is to collect contractual cash flows, with the cash flows representing solely payments of principal and interest. These assets are initially recognized at fair value plus any directly attributable transaction costs. Subsequent to initial recognition, these financial assets are measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method, less any impairment losses. Financial assets measured at amortized cost include accounts receivable and other receivable. The amortized cost of these assets is representative of their fair value due to the short-term nature of these receivables.

FVTPL

Financial instruments are classified as FVTPL when they are held for trading. A financial instrument is held for trading if it was acquired for the purpose of sale in the near term. Financial instruments classified as FVTPL are measured at fair value, with any changes in fair value recognized in net loss.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements
For the Years Ended June 30, 2020 and 2019
(Expressed in Canadian Dollars)

16. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS (continued)

Financial liabilities

Management determines the classification of its financial liabilities at initial recognition.

Amortized cost

Financial liabilities measured at amortized cost are recognized initially at fair value net of any directly attributable transaction costs. Subsequent to initial recognition, these financial liabilities are measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method. Other financial liabilities are de-recognized when the obligations are discharged, cancelled or expired.

Financial liabilities are classified as current liabilities if payment is due within one year or less. If not, there are presented as non-current liabilities.

The fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs used to measure fair value is as follows:

- Level 1 - Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;
- Level 2 - Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability either directly or indirectly; and
- Level 3 - Inputs that are not based on observable market data.

The fair value of cash is determined based on Level 1 inputs which consist of quoted prices in active markets for identical assets. As at June 30, 2020 and 2019, the Company believes that the carrying values of cash and cash equivalents approximate the fair values because of their nature and relatively short maturity dates or durations.

17. FINANCIAL RISK EXPOSURE AND RISK MANAGEMENT

The Company's financial instruments are exposed to a number of risks that are summarized below:

Credit Risk

Credit risk is the risk of potential loss to the Company if the counterparty to a financial instrument fails to meet its contractual obligations. The Company's credit risk is primarily attributable to its trade receivables. The carrying value of these financial assets represents the Company's maximum exposure to credit risk. As at June 30, 2020, the Company had $406,851 (June 30, 2019 - $290,022) financial assets that may be subject to credit risk defaults (note 7). Cash is deemed to have a nominal risk as it is primarily held at a tier 1 Canadian chartered bank.

Hill Street Beverage Company Inc. (formerly Avanco Capital Corp.)
Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements
For the Years Ended June 30, 2020 and 2019
(Expressed in Canadian Dollars)

17. FINANCIAL RISK EXPOSURE AND RISK MANAGEMENT (continued)

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will not be able to meet its obligations with respect to financial liabilities as they fall due. The Company's financial liabilities consist of its accounts payable CEBA loans payable and convertible debentures. The Company manages its liquidity risk through the management of its capital structure as described in Note 18. The Company's accounts payable have contractual maturities of 30 days or are due on demand, do not generally bear interest and are subject to normal trade terms. As at June 30, 2020, the Company held $987,010 (June 30, 2019 - $627,141) in current liabilities.

Market risk

Market risk is the risk of loss that may arise from changes in market factors such as interest rates, investment fluctuations, and equity prices. Market conditions will cause fluctuations in the fair values of financial assets classified as fair value through profit or loss, and cause fluctuations in the fair value of future cash flows for assets or liabilities measured at fair value. As at June 30, 2020, the Company holds $1,022,500 of interest-bearing debt, however there is no cash flow interest rate risk because the interest rate is fixed at 10%.

Foreign exchange risk

Foreign exchange risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in the foreign currency exchange rates. Revenue and expenses are mostly denominated in Canadian dollar, US dollar or Euro. A significant change in the currency exchange rates between the Canadian dollar, US dollar and Euro could have an effect on the Company's results of operations, financial position or cash flows. However, because most of the Company's financial instruments are denominated in Canadian dollars, the Company does not believe it is subject to any significant foreign exchange risk at this time. The Company has not hedged its exposure to currency fluctuations.

18. CAPITAL MANAGEMENT

The Company considers capital to be the elements of loans payable and shareholders' equity. The Company's primary objectives in capital management are to safeguard the Company's ability to continue as a going concern in order to provide returns for shareholders and to maintain sufficient funds to finance its business development and meet its obligations as they come due. The Company is in the early stages of operations and is currently developing a capital structure which will support expanded activity. The Company monitors economic conditions and the risks related to the underlying assets and business opportunities. The Company does not presently utilize any quantitative measures to monitor its capital and is not subject to externally imposed capital requirements.
